

What more can we expect to be seeing from you as a band throughout 2009?

Sophee; plenty more amazing singles and albums smiles and hopefully a tour somewhere out of the UK!

Hannah; UK? Worldwide! We're going Global babyyy.

Amy; world wide? COURSE WE ARE! Do you not know who i am?! winks

Kat; were gonna invent the first presidents of the world, and its going to be us! then make billions of singles and albums!...too much for one year?

Where do you see yourself to be in twenty years time?

Sophee; married with children, but being a judge on x factor is our overall dream, we just love the AMAZING music it comes out with.

Hannah; You want to be on Xfactor!? Erm, no kids, or husband, I think its the rock and roll life for me. I wouldn't mind doing some charity work though!

Amy; Married to a footballer obviously, don't know about the kids they do my head in! Probably same as Soph, judging some t.v show, Ultimate dream!

Kat; settled down obviously but I'm not too keen on x factor! I think I'm gonna carry on playing, if the band haven't had enough of me by then!

That's all for now! Remember, to buy the new album 'Blue skirts, Red skirts' on the 6th November! And watch out for Today Was Yesterdays tour in the UK. And hopefully we will catch up with them later in the year.
